

Local Residents Win Prizes

Mrs. Betty Doran, 1528 Torrance Blvd., Torrance, is the winner of a Ranch Pack assortment of fancy groceries and produce in the "Handy Hint" contest conducted by the radio program HOME-MAKER'S NEWS over station KBIG, Catalina.

Mrs. Doran submitted her winning ideas on the subject of new and intriguing uses for fruits and vegetables. Don Doolittle broadcasts HOME-MAKER'S NEWS on KBIG each weekday morning at 10 a.m. It is presented by Von's Grocery Company, Los Angeles.

In a second announcement, station authorities announced that Mrs. C. E. Johnston, 437 West Carson Street, and Frank Frohuoeter, 1116 Hickory in Torrance, lost their chances of winning a free record album when they failed to stump KBIG disc jockey Joe Niagara with a favorite "tongue-twister." But by losing, they did win an album for the Orange County Hospital in Orange and the Veteran Administration in Los Angeles.

On his daily 6-to-10 a.m. broadcast over the Catalina station, Niagara invites listeners to send him "Tongue-twisters" which he reads at top speed three times. If he stumbles, the listener wins the album. If he succeeds, a charitable institution gets it.

Title of the contest, naturally, is "Niagara Falls."

ROCKHOUNDS MEET

The Palos Verdes Gem and Mineral Society will hold its monthly meeting at the California Hall, 1932 Pacific Coast Hwy. Lomita, November 15, 8 p.m.

Program for the evening will be what has been accomplished during the year. Door prizes for the guests and members. Visitors are always welcome. Refreshments will be served.

Gourmets can still plant vegetables for winter harvest. Many are available in flats from your nurseryman.

BM High Sets Open House Sun.

Catholic Education Week being observed in conjunction with American Education Week will reach a climax next Sunday.

Highlight of the week will be "Open House" and Parent Faculty Organization meeting at Bishop Montgomery High School in Torrance, Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in the school library.

"Catholic Schools' Challenges in the '60's," is the theme for Catholic Education Week. During the week classes and group guidance sessions, through posters and displays, and exhibits teachers strive to acquaint students, parents, and the community with classroom achievements in terms of a God-centered and complete education.

Father James O'Callaghan, professor at Los Angeles City College and chaplain of the Newman Club will speak on "The Teenager." With a warm sense of humor and a deep understanding of the teenager and his problems, Father O'Callaghan will prove very interesting to each parent who attends.
